There's no turning back. But backs are turning on Bill Henrickson-Utah's newly elected State Senator and admitted polygamist with three wives and nine children. With his admission causing shockwaves, Bill and his family must deal with the consequences in the fifth and final season of this iconic drama series. In addition to facing a wave of hostility in the wake of Bill's revelation, the Henricksons must also handle the return of Alby Grant who has come back from a self-imposed exile with revenge on his mind. Can the Henricksons stand up to this seemingly endless flood of ill-will? (AC,AL,V) TVMA/V,L-1:00 CC DG51Esp (HDTV)

As a young man growing up in Baltimore, Thurgood Marshall wondered if he would spend his entire life being humiliated by segregation. Instead, he dedicated himself to banishing segregation in all of its forms—by becoming the first African American to serve on the U.S. Supreme Court. Based on George Stevens Jr.'s acclaimed one-man play and told in the first person by Laurence Fishburne (in the role of Marshall), the film focuses on the turning points in the life and career of this civil rights pioneer. PREMIERES MONDAY, FEBRUARY 7, AT 9 PM/8C

In February 2010, U.S. Marines launched the biggest operation since the start of the war in Afghanistan: Operation Moshtarak. Now, the story is told in this account of this highly risky effort to liberate the strategically vital town of Marjah. Shot by embedded journalist Ben Anderson, who captures some of the most intense fighting footage ever caught on camera, the film offers a brutal, rarely seen glimpse at just how dangerous and difficult the situation in southern Afghanistan has become—and how hard it may be to turn around.
